We are proudly climate-conscious, and believe we are the only truly climate-friendly social enterprise caterer in the West Midlands. As a natural result of this commitment, all our food and beverages are 100% vegetarian, and halal. All our menus are freshly prepared with seasonal ingredients and there may be variations between menu items on the day. We proudly cater for many dietary requirements, such as vegan and gluten free, and are able to cater for almost any allergy. It is important you make us aware of all and any food allergies at time of booking. We cannot guarantee a nut-free environment. Where food is described as gluten-free, please be aware that these foods are made with Non-Gluten Containing Ingredients (NGCI) in an environment where gluten-containing products are handled. Hot food is delivered hot, in warm-keeping containers.

Prices given are subject to change and apply to lunch/day bookings. Evening events and private catering prices may vary. Delivery is charged on top of per head price. Service staff can be provided on request.

#CookingUpChange

OUR PURPOSE

As an award-winning social enterprise, ChangeKitchen CIC commit profits to achieving our social purpose combined with an environmental conscience.

This means we donate free homemade, plant-based, nutritious meals to those in need every time you book a catered event with us. We also deliver healthy eating workshops to community groups of all ages.

As 'caterers who care', environmentally friendly and ethically-based practices are embedded in all that we do - from crockery to packaging, food waste to buying local, being a Living Wage employer to open recruitment and providing a supportive, inclusive environment for our diverse and amazing team.

Thank you for being part of our social and food justice journey.
